OTTAWA'S SECOND MEETING

RACING AT THE CANADIAN CAPITAL OPENS TODAY WITH A MUDDY TRACK,

Seven Races on the Program with Good Fields in Each Case-No Scarcity of Horses-Notes of the Track.

Ottawa, Ont.. August 23.—The final meeting of the Connaught Park Jockey Club will be ushered in tomorrow afternoon with the running of a card of seven well-filled races. No special feature is carded for decision, but nevertheless well contested sport is anticipated. As a result of heavy rains the mud runners will have a field day. The majority of the races will be under selling conditions and have attracted large fields. A steepiechase over the short course of two miles is down for decision and has brought together a field of eight. The majority of those nominated have been at the course since the close of the Hamilton meeting and have had considerable schooling.

No shortage of horses will be experienced for the meeting. In addition to those from Windsor and Hamilton, reinforcements have arrived from Saratoga and Montreal. Among the latest arrivals are R. A. White, George B. Cochran, R. B. Stelle, M. J. Day, A. J. Arnhardt and T. K. Beal.

W. R. Sallee, formerly trainer for F. J. Pons, has severed his connection with that stable and taken over the horses Surpassing and Luria for J. C. Hansen that previously raced for J. J. Ryan and will campaign them throughout the remainder of the Canadian circuit.

Jockey Acton received a dispatch from his contract employer, W. L. Lewis, ordering him to report at Lexington at the conclusion of this meeting.

Golden Jug, which Mike Gorman took over from the Seagram stable, died yesterday following a gelding operation. The spine was injured and the horse was ordered destroyed.

James Boden and Allan Bulcroft shipped from Blue Bonnets with part of the stables of D. Raymond and N. Mactarlane. In each stable is a candidate for the King's Plate to be run during the coming meeting at Blue Bonnets. Mr. Raymond has nominated Reddest, while Mr. Macfarlane centers his hopes in Lady Spendthrift. Both have been sent over the plate course at the track. Charles O. Smith, who has the direction of the ring at Connaught Park, arrived this morning included Horace Paul, Sam Bradley, Frank Shann Chiengo.

Jockey Phil Goldstein received a telegram from the Inverneck Stable asking him to ride Herrmann the King's Plate at Blue Bonnets. Goldstein has accepted the offer.

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN TRAINERS AND WINNINGS OF HORSES IN THEIR CARE

The table below presents the measure of success achieved by our trainers in so much of this year's racing campaign as has passed into accomplishment. The left hand column gives the number of winners sent to the post by the thirty most successful trainers, that on the right shows the aggregate of money wen. In the first H. G. Bedwell leads, with James Arthur second and Thomas J. Healey third, while in the second James Rowe is the leader, with Arthur again second, while Bedwell is here third, Rowe does not get into the first column at all, but the nine winning horses he has saddled have been regular whales in the important matter of "getting the money," so here he is first and likely to stay first to the end of the year. The thirty leaders and the figures to their credit are:

WINDSOR'S REMARKABLE MUTUEL SALES.

Detroit, Mich., August 23.—That the recent successful meetings at Windsor, operating for the first time under the mutuel system of wagering, marked the passing of the bookmaker for all time from that section of the country was the general opinion after the record-breaking success that the system achieved during the fourieen days the sport held sway at the Parmer-Hendrie course. The most ardent enthusiast of the mutuel style of betting was unprepared for the signal success of the system. Never before has any track in this country enjoyed the record volume of wagering done at this track. It exceeded the most roseate expectations of the management and proved that their lack of preparedness cost them an immense sum of money. The equipment of 27 machines were wholly inadequate to handle the offerings and it is doubtful if 40 would have been enough. According to present arrangements there will be installed for next year's use a number of machines that will be ample to handle the money offered in convenient fashion.

When it first became known that the Windsor track would install machines, the bookmakers and their numerous supporters, predicted that the new style of betting would not meet with great success, at least at the outset, and that it would require several years for the Detroiters, who largely compose the Windsor track patronage, to digest the system thoroughly. How bad their predictions were can be gieaned from the fact that during the first meeting of seven days the daily average of $220,000 was maintained. This was truly a remarkable showing, far more than the management expected, and it also took the prop from the bookmakers and their supporters. If any doubts of the success of the system remained it was effectively dispelled at the second seven-days meeting, when the astounding average of over $255,000 was reached, making a grand daily average of nearly $238,000 for the fourteen days of racing.

The last four days of racing were the banner ones, as on each of these day

IMPROVEMENTS AT LEXINGTON TRACK.

Lexington, Ky., August 23.—With many good horses at the track, more coming, a carefully arranged program of races and many improvements about the course since the spring meeting, lovers of the sport believe the 1915 fall meeting here will eclipse all previous racing at the historic Kentucky track.

The latest improvement at the track is the removal of the press box from the roof of the grandstand down below the boxes in front. This change, which was provided by Superintendent Ross, will be welcomed by the visiting and local scribes, who have wilted many collars in the roof garden in the years gone by.

Another improvement that will be welcomed by the occupants of the grandstand as much as the removal of the press box by the newspaper men, is the removal of the telegraph poles in the center of the track that have been an eyesore for many years. The Western Union has removed all of these poles, the wires coming into the grandstand from the back now. The new $6$ combination machine recently purchased from John Hachmeister, of Louisville and Latonia, will arrive and be installed before the meeting. This machine, which was patented by Hachmeister, enables the bettor to place $2$ each on straight, place and show bet and does away with the old necessity of purchasing three tickets.

RAIN AND MUD ONCE MORE

SARATOGA'S GOOD CARD FOR MONDAY SPOILED BY AN UNTIMELY DOWNPOUR.

Achievement First in the Albany Handicap-The Grader Continues to Win-Old Carlton G. Takes a Race-Korfhage Bid Up.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 23.—Rain which fell yesterday again made the track here slow and, what looked like an unusually well-balanced Monday's card, was greatly marred by wholesale scratches. The day was clear, however, and the track dried out as the afternoon progressed.

The best race of the day was a seven-furlongs handicap, in which some fair racers were engaged. Leochares, Capra and Charter Maid were withdrawn and Schuyler L. Parsons' three-year-old, Hanson, went to the post a mild choice. He finished unplaced, being unable to concede weight to the opposition he was asked to meet. The Grader, which has raced improvingly during the meeting, turned up the winner after being in a contending position throughout. After making the stretch turn Garner took him into the lead and he had to ride him out to withstand the challenge of Harry Shaw, which had met with bad racing luck.

The Albany Handicap, for two-year-olds, was the stake feature, but it attracted only a mediocre field. Prince of Como and Spur were added, while Pleione, Fleuro and Cantara were scratched. Achievement, the favorite, won after dominating the running, and Spur was second at the finish. The Cochran entry, Prince of Como and Hands off, both refired early and Colonel Vennie finished third after being in close quarters while going down the backstretch. When clear he made up ground.

The Albany Handicap has been an annual two-year-old fixture of the Saratoga Association since 1901, and its condensed history, to date, follows: Year, Winner. Wt. Jockey. Val. Time. 1901 Divicline . 119 Shaw ... $2,700 1:13%, 1902 Grey Friar . 117 T. Burns . 2,980 1:12%, 1903 Gold Saint . 100 H. No racing in 1911 and 1912.

Carlton G. finally made good, when he won the fifth race over the favorite, Squeeler, after the latter had made the pace to the stretch turn.
H. D. Brown and his son, H. D. Jr., were recent arrivals at Saratoga and they will remain for the rest of the week. They plan to leave for Havana during the first week in September and will supervise the raising of the track at Marlana and the installation of drainage facilities.

After Korfhage won the first race he was bid up from $700 to $1,100 by Emil Herz, but was protected by his trainer. Mr. Herz finished second in this race with Devil Fish.
Joseph A. Murphy and E. J. McGraw were arrivals today from Detroit and will depart for Ottawa tomorrow.

Harry Shaw, despite his rather hard campaign this year, looks unusually good. He was recently taken in charge by John Powers, who saddled him today for the first time. Today's card embraced seven races, the first being split after it had attracted twenty-six entries.

Sam McRae departed tonight for Ottawa. Bookmakers J. M. Coburn and Max Frank left this morning for the same place.

John E. Madden has sold to the Northwood Stable, which is the nom de course of Mortimer L. Schiff, the two-year-old Plaintiff, by Sir John Johnson, which he purchased from Capt. E. B. Cassatt recently.

E. T. Colton left for Chicago this morning on account of illness of his father. His stable of racers will be shipped to Kentucky next week.

Starter Mars Cassidy resumed his duties at the barrier today after recovering from an attack of indigestion.

"Buth" May reports that the horses in his charge have all shown the effects of hard racing, Bayberry Candle pulling up sore after her race of a few days ago. He will go to Belmont Park for that meeting before shipping to Kentucky.

J. W. Hedrick, Jr. claimed Cv Merrick for $1,100 out of the seventh race, in which he was represented by Frank Hudson.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

Reybourn has been resold—this time to W. J.

Former Senator J. N. Camden is among the late arrivals at Saratoga.

G. Billerman's gelding W. C. West was attacked by car sickness while en route from Reno and died at San Francisco August 18.

John Barnett reports the death of the brown filly Bargain by Migraine out of Dicker by Ogden. The filly died of lung fever.

The nily died of lung fever.

The partnership yearlings of August Belmont and T. C. McDowell have been entered in the sale at Lexington, September 14 and 15.

Benjamin Woodford has sold to Sr. Eugenio Alvarez, of Cuba, the chestnut yearling colt by Plaudit—Breezyland, by Orlando, second dam Lake Breeze, by Leonatus, for $1,000.

Breekepriden Vilon & South Leonatus, for $1,000.

Breckenridge Viley & Sons' bay wealing colt (half-brother to Highball), by Fair Play—Strychinia, committed suicide by putting his head in the fork of a small tree, and then pulling back broke his neck.

Applications for stable room at Lexington are pouring in to Superintendent Ross, and a shipment of six carloads of horses will arrive today, including the stables of Jefferson Livingston, Howard Oots, William Lewis, E. W. Moore and J. W. Goldblatt.

J. O. Keene, by obtaining $10,000 from the Sho-shone Stable for his good filly Jacoba last week, succeeded in rounding out a properous season in his first year as trainer-owner. Earlier in the year he sold Carmen, a Peter Quince filly, to Schuyler Parsons for $5,000.

Parsons for $5,000. The race for gentlemen riders scheduled for Saturday at Saratoga was declared off, as there were not enough amateurs on hand to make a race possible. This was a great disappointment to Lieut Fred Alpers, who was looking forward to another victory with Little Nearer.

victory with Little Nearer.

John Sanford's mares Trance and Consuello II. and foals were shipped to Mr. Sanford's Hurricana Farm. Amsterdam, N. Y.. last Wednesday night from E. R. Bradley's Idle Hour Stud. Trance had a foal at side by Duval and was bred this year to Start Shoot. Cousello II. (dam of George Smith) had a foal at side by Trap Rock.

Reno is planning for a return meeting not long after the close at San Francisco, according to officials of that new racing center. The initial meeting was a success so far beyond expectations the management is said to have decided to hold a two weeks' meeting some time in September or October. The exact dates will be selected so as not to conflict with other tracks.

Many of the merchants of San Francisco made to conflict with other tracks.

Many of the merchants of San Francisco made Saturday afternoon a half-holiday for the purpose of allowing their employes to go to the races that opened in connection with the exposition and celebrate the return of the sport. The revival of racing in San Francisco is looked upon with favor by many of the prominent business men of the city who remember the good times they enjoyed when the sport was in its glory.

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS.

There was no clean-cut leader among the jockeys in last week's riding, L. Gentry and F. Cooper finishing in a tie with an addition to their records of six winning mounts each. T. McTaggart fared well in the week's work with five winners and M. Garner came next with four. J. Loftus excels in percentage, but because of his weight does not have many riding opportunities. In all the requisites of skill in the saddle he, Butwell and Notter are our best riders of today, but some of our lightweights are more than promising. The records of our thirty leading riders are now:

General News Notes of the Day.

German troops have occcupied the fortress of Ossowetz, evacuated by the Russians. The announcement was made at German army headquarters yesterday. Ossowetz is on the Bobr river about thirty miles northeast of Lomza and about fifty miles southwest of Grodno. For months it has withstood most determined German attacks, but the recent advances of Teuton armies on its flanks made it untenable.

More than 2,500,000 Austro-Germans are being hurled against the Russian lines from Riga to Galicia in an attempt to crush the grand duke's armies. A semi-official statement at Petrograd yesterday estimated that 120 divisions of infantry and 20 divisions of cavalry are operating against the Russians. This includes about 40 per cent of all the German forces and 70 per cent of the strength of Austria.

The Berlin Vossische Zeitung says the bathing

The Berlin Vossische Zeitung says the bathing places on the rivers near Berlin have been closed by the police, owing to several cases of cholera among shipworkers in Brandenburg province, waters, it is added, have been contaminated. A correspondent of the London Times, who re-cently has been in Scandanavia, sends the following: German submarines lately have adopted the practice of stopping neutral ships in the North Sea and de-manding that enemy passengers of a military age shall be handed over to them.

A dispatch from Paris yesterday says: Two French torpedo boats encountered and sank a German torpedo boat destroyer off Ostend (Belgium) last night. An announcement made here yesterday says: Our boats were undamaged.
